

Junior Woman's Club

Installs at Dinner-Dance

Aboard the SS Princess Louise last Saturday evening, Mrs. Robert Vroman was installed as president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club.

As a child, Mrs. Vroman and her family, residents of Ocean Falls, Can., had traveled many times on the ship when it was the only means of transportation from Vancouver to Alaska. It is now an elegant restaurant anchored at Terminal Island.

Club members were joined by their husbands for the installation Dinner Dance beginning with cocktails at 6:30 p.m. Dinner was followed by impressive installation ceremonies, carrying out the new president's theme, "Concerned Dedication—Action—the Golden Chain of Community Service."

New Officers Preside at Court Meeting

Mrs. Grace Rother and Charles Breneman presided for their first meeting as Royal Matron and Patron of the Lomita Court, Order of Amaranth on Thursday.

All officers and many members were present and paid tribute to Mrs. Mattie Meyer and Clyde Satterfield, junior past presiding officers, who presented the court with two flags.

The United States Flag is always present in the Court room and the second flag is used for installation and initiation.

Lomita Court meets every second and fourth Thursday in the Torrance Masonic Temple.

St. Philomena Parish

Carnival Set on Weekend

Preparations are almost completed for the annual St. Philomena Parish Carnival to be held on the church grounds at 21900 S. Main St., Torrance. The carnival theme this year will be "The Little World's Fair" with the many booths and attractions decorated to represent many different countries.

Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. Samuel Consalvo, president of the Women's Council and Pat Butler, president of the Men's Council, working with Father Frederick Callahan, pastor of St. Philomena Church.

The hours of the carnival will be 12 p.m. until 9 p.m.

on Saturday, June 3, and from 1 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 4.

The women of the church have been busy making many of the gifts for the carnival. The selection will include decorator French coaches, monkey dolls, meat and vegetable cutting boards, beautiful feathered swans, barbecue aprons, and resin bathroom accessories.

Featured this year will be a Parcel Post Booth with many gifts mailed in from friends and relatives from all over the country. There will also be a Taco Booth, Snow Cone Booth, Fish Pond, Soft Drink Booth, Balloon Dart Game, Country Store, Chest and Linens and Bake Sale. Children will have many rides to choose from and Rebo the Clown of television fame will feature a Museum of Magic.

A fried chicken dinner will be held on Sunday, June 4, from 1 until 7 p.m.

Climax of the carnival will be the awarding of the grand prize, a 1967 Chevrolet Camaro and a second prize, a portable TV. The public is invited to attend the carnival and the dinner. No reservations are necessary.
